- 16 & 17 January: Return to the Redeemer: a wakeup call to the Youth- Seminar for the youth at Don Bosco -Hospet

Meeting of the office bearers of the parishes, was held on 16&17th Jan 2016 held at Don Bosco-Hospet. There were 50 participants. The meeting was inaugurated by Rev. Fr. Pushparaj, the dean of Hospet. Fr. Lawrannce, Rector of DonBosco- Hospet, Fr. Siji SDB, Fr. Sebastian SDB, Fr. Charles Sunderaj, Parish Priest- Hospet, Fr. John Peter DYD, Mr. Agustín Youth president and Ms. Dyana, were present.

Fr. John Peter explained the purpose of the two days meeting. On this year of Mercy, the youth were challenged to return to the Lord to experience his forgiving and merciful love of God.

Fr. Joe Francis, explained to the youth regarding the images in the Bible of the merciful love of the Father. He drew their attention to the call of the Pope Francis in this year of Mercy. The students were divided into small groups to discuss how they find the ways and means to return to the Redeemer Jesus Christ. The students were divided into different groups and sent for group discussion.

Fr. Amal Chandra, highlighted the different individuals such as Zacheus, Mary Magdalene, Mathew the tax collector and other people how they met the Lord and returned as changed persons and eventually became the disciples of Jesus following him in a radical way.

The students are engaged in group discussion to find out how in this year of Mercy, can change their lives and their ways.

Bishop Henry D'Souza, Bishop of Ballari, spoke to the youth on Leadership. He highlighted that the leadership is not of domination but service. He challenged the youth to apt for a service oriented leadership both in the Church and the society.

As a climax of the two days training programme Bishop celebrated Eucharist along with the other concelebrants and the youth.

After the mass there was a sumptuous lunch served to the participants. It was followed by a group photo of the participants with Fr. John Peter DYD, Bishop Henry D'Souza and the youth President and secretary.
